

Farncombe & Godalming Rifle Club ("FGRC")

General Data Protection Regulations Privacy Policy

About this policy

This policy explains when and why we Farncombe & Godalming Rifle Club collect personal information about our members and how we use it; keep it secure and club member's rights in relation to it. This includes probationary members, visitors and guests. We will collect, use and store personal data, as described in this Data Protection Policy when people engage in activities at the club. Normally this will be through some level of membership.

We reserve the right to amend this Data Protection Policy from time to time without prior notice. You are advised to check our Club notice board regularly for any amendments including our website and social media officially sanctioned by FGRC. We will only share your personal data with any third parties as outlined below.

We will always comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) when dealing with your personal data. Further details on the GDPR can be found at the website for the Information Commissioner (www.ico.gov.uk).

Responsible person

For the purposes of the GDPR, The Club Membership Secretary will be the "controller" of all personal data we hold about club members and others. The Membership Secretary is responsible for making sure the club complies with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which applies from 25 May 2018. We will review personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it or not.

Member's rights

You have rights under the GDPR:

- To access your personal data
- To be provided with information about how your personal data is processed
- To have your personal data corrected
- To have your personal data erased in certain circumstances
- To object to or restrict how your personal data is processed in certain circumstances

For more details, please address any questions, comments and requests regarding our data processing practices to the Membership Secretary

Specific use and sharing of personal information and social media

Your personal data (name, address, date of birth) will be used to notify the Police when you join the club and for any appropriate notifications as required by law. In general your personal data will only be used for the purposes of membership management (renewals etc.) and your email and telephone numbers may be used for communication about news/work at the club/range closure, competition entries/results and other important notices etc. Your name/address and email address may be shared with our current National Governing Body (NSRA). Your personal data will not be passed to anyone else outside the club and your email will only be given to someone outside the club with your permission. You are encouraged to use only FGRC sanctioned social media and you are at liberty to opt in or out of sharing or participating. Members participating have found the use of the FGRC Whatsapp Group useful but data posted there will be visible and shared. To opt out and cease participation is possible by notifying the Whatsapp Group administrator at any time. Members are asked to be considerate in both the substance and content of both the written word and the images they post and if the material is considered inappropriate could be a disciplinary matter.

The Lawful reasons for processing your data.

We have three lawful reasons for processing your data, which are:

- (a) Processing is necessary for compliance with our legal obligation (Firearm Amendment Act 1988 c.45 Exemptions Section 15 – Firearms clubs)
- (b) Processing of your data is necessary for the administration of your membership contract.

(c) You have given consent to the processing of your data by signing our privacy statement for the specific purposes set out in this policy.

The tables below give further explanation of which lawful reason applies to which data, why we collect it and who we may be required to share it with. The club will make every effort to ensure data is only shared with organisations that are GDPR compliant.

What Information we collect, why we collect it, and who we share it with

In addition to the reasons stated below we may have to disclose your data where we have an inescapable legal obligation.

Data processed under our legal obligation

Requirements of Home Office Approval

The club is a Home Office Approved Rifle Club. This means that the club will

- Appoint a Police Liaison Officer – currently the Secretary
- Maintain a register of attendance of all members with details of the firearm used
- Inform the Police of any person other than a guest member who has ceased to be a member for whatever reason
- Inform the Police of any person other than a guest who has not shot at the club for a period of 12 months
- Inform the Police of any application for membership giving the applicant's full name and address, date and place of birth and the date on which they became a member

Enquiries and other communications with the club

When enquiring about the club we may hold your details for a period of time to deal with the enquiry. Any emails and other communications with the club will only be retained for a period of time appropriate to the content or request. Club emails will be purged on a regular basis. People added to a club waiting list for membership will be informed and asked for permission to store that data at that point.

Children

Parents or guardians signing the probationary or full membership form are giving their permission for the data to be used as described elsewhere in this policy.

How we protect your personal data

The Data Controller will process membership information electronically and hold all information. on a secure computer or on paper file or in cloud based storage from time to time. A backup of this information will be held on hard drive or cloud based storage. Paper copies of data will be held at the Secretary's house or secured at the clubhouse and secured in a locked filing cabinet. If it is necessary to transport data it will be kept secure.

Coaches and instructors will also process and hold information pertaining to people under their instruction and necessary information will be made available to coaches and instructors only as required.

For any on-line payments which we take from members, probationers, visitors and guests we will use a recognised online secure payment system.

In the unlikely event of a breach of the security of data we will notify members promptly and we will never sell or pass on your personal data.

Request to see your personal information

If you wish to know what personal data the club holds please email the Membership Secretary at secretary@fgrc.org.uk and he/she will respond within 14 days of the request (depending on availability).

Accuracy and retention of data

Each individual member is responsible for keeping the Membership Secretary informed of changes to their data (e.g. address/telephone number etc. and this is updated at least once a year at renewal and you are at that time authorising the club to hold such data on file.

The data are kept at the Secretary's home address and in a secure area at the Clubhouse or may be kept upon the club's website to enable electronic renewals. The data will be normally be kept for up to 7 years or as required by law. It may be kept for a longer period for reasons of legal and civil action or other ongoing case management. Name, address and length of membership will be kept for up to 30 years for management of historical insurance claims. Names and scores may be kept indefinitely for reason of historical significance – e.g. on trophies, plaques and other awards.

CCTV Images

CCTV may be used to record activities on the ranges at the club in the interests of safety and crime prevention. All images are stored onsite in the hard storage or cloud storage). The images/data are stored for 12 months or as required in law and then these are over written.

For these reasons the information processed may include visual images, personal appearance and behaviours. This information may be about club members, customers and offenders and suspected offenders, members of the public and those inside, entering or in the immediate vicinity of the area under surveillance. Where necessary or required this information is shared with the data subjects themselves, employees and agents, service providers, police forces, security organisations and persons making an enquiry. Any complaints which rely on this about theft/bullying/abuse etc. must therefore be made within 12 months of the incident otherwise the images will have been overwritten.
